Host Rocco G. has changed the way the world learns about fashion, combining the online features of FashionNewsLive.com into an outstanding, not-to-be missed production. Viewers and fans can tune in to watch Fashion News Live segments with online television broadcasts at www.fashionnewslive.com. Celebrity Interviews and Fashion Week are only a few highlights of the online portal brimming with news and clips!

Fashion News Live brings us three fresh and exciting segments in 2007. Fashion Able catches up with unsuspected people on the street subjected to today's fashion do's-and-don'ts. City Showcase presents an insider's guide to the trendiest shops, eateries and lounges throughout some of the nation's top cities. Rocco G. explores fashion trends at hotspots in South Beach, New York City, Los Angeles, and nine other locales. The Makeover Challenge brings us a weight loss competition sponsored by TRIMSPA, covering a twelve-week transformation to watch the progress of three contestants as they change both physically and mentally. The winner of the Makeover Challenge is awarded a grand prize and a new wardrobe to celebrate their success.

With his sharp eye for fashion and charming personality, Rocco G. brings us a fresh take on the changing world of fashion, news, and celebrity coverage. The season's lineup of shows from Fashion News Live are not to be missed!

The red carpet has never looked this good, welcoming the charming Executive Producer and Host Rocco Gaglioti of Fashion News Live. The host's infectious smile and on-camera talents explode on the scene, bringing us the cockiness of Donald Trump balanced with the finesse of Carson Daly.

The show's additional productions include the Makeover Challenge, Fashion Able, and City Showcase. Each thirty minute segment of City Showcase takes fashion-savvy fans through a presentation of who's who and what's hot and happening in today's fashion world. Viewers can also travel with Rocco G. to the red carpet for Celebrity Interviews where he catches up with some of today's hottest stars.
